Description

A large oil on canvas depicting an iconic scene of Parisian life in Saint-Germain-des-Prés. The rich and balanced composition is distinguished by a luminous palette, precise brushstrokes, and a vibrant portrayal of 20th-century Paris, capturing both architectural elegance and everyday bustle.

Anne Gavarni works within the tradition of Parisian figurative painting, with a particular focus on urban atmospheres and light. Her time at Hermès reflects an environment of high standards and refinement, evident in the rigor of the composition and the attention to detail. Parisian scenes of this caliber, depicting emblematic neighborhoods, are now highly sought-after collector's pieces, prized for both their decorative value and their cultural significance. This work represents a sound and lasting acquisition for a
