

Louis XVI Period Coffee Table, Philippe-claude Montigny

46 000 EUR

Signature : Philippe-Claude Montigny

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Wood marquetry

Description

Veneered on all sides with marquetry of bottomless cubes in amaranth, rosewood, and sycamore. The front opens with three drawers without a central divider. The top drawer forms a writing surface with a hinged lid lined in red morocco leather and containing a silver-plated writing set including an inkwell, a powder compact, and a sponge box. It rests on four tapered, square-section legs decorated with rosewood compartments in the central section and adorned at the top with a laurel wreath in chased and gilt bronze. The legs terminate in plain sabots resting on flattened balls, all in gilt bronze. The legs are joined by a stretcher shelf decorated with a mosaic of cubes delimited by an amaranth band and a boxwood border. Stamped by Philippe-Claude Montigny. Louis XVI period.

Dealer

Galerie Pellat de Villedon

French furnitures of the 17th & 18th centuries

Mobile : 06 07 57 01 20

2 bis rue Carnot

Versailles 78000

Usual restoration. Dimensions: 74 x 42 x 31 cm.

We find an identical table in the Gandur pour l'Art collection no. FGA-AD-MOBI-0034, which was sold at Marc-Arthur Kohn, Cannes, August 4, 2010, lot no. 243 and at Binoche, Marcel Bissay estate, Paris, December 11, 2003, lot no. 63, Collection Marcel Bissay, Parisian antique dealer.