Description

Portrait of a man in the 17th-century style, oil on canvas, early 19th century. Good overall condition, numerous craquelure visible in the background, but not in the face. Antique black lacquered wood frame. A handsome portrait of a man with a large ruff standing out against a black background. Oil on canvas, likely a copy of a portrait from the very beginning of the 17th century, but painted around 1800. Probably a copy made for a family member. On the back, this inscription: Gaston de?
