Description

Large ornamental vase in Paris porcelain. Empire style, Restoration period - early 19th century, 1820s-1830s. Beautifully decorated in the Sèvres style, featuring a delicate floral motif within a frame on one side, and a composition with a putto on the other. Exquisite matte and burnished gilding covers the entire vase, particularly the side handles in the form of bearded old men's busts. A large and highly decorative piece, vases of this size were considered luxury items at the time. Our vase is in perfect condition, remarkably well preserved (extremely fresh gilding, vibrant colors, no damage or repairs). Height: 29 cm
Diameter: 20.5 cm
