Description

A narrative porcelain composition depicting Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, titled Surprise for Snow White, issued by Lenox around 1998. The figures are arranged in a balanced, theatrical composition around a central table, capturing a quiet celebratory moment with strong visual coherence.

Executed in high-quality porcelain with a soft ivory glaze, the group is hand-painted in pastel enamels and finished with subtle accents of 24-carat gold. The underside bears official Lenox and Disney collection marks, confirming its place within this licensed series.
