Description

This mixed media work on handmade paper by Montse Vives Roig features a vertical composition dominated by a yellow background with a centrally placed red square panel. The artist uses acrylic, watercolor, and Chinese ink to build layered color fields and fine linear elements. Within the red panel, white schematic figures are arranged in a structured grid, forming a symbolic and graphic visual language. Subtle handwritten text is visible beneath the yellow surface, contributing to the layered construction without becoming the focal point. The work reflects late 20th-century contemporary Catalan approaches to personal symbolism, material experimentation, and small-format paper-based practice. Artist Montse Vives Roig (b. 1957) is a Barcelona-based artist working primarily in
