

Pair Of Louis XVI Armchairs

3 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gilted wood

Description

Elegant pair of Louis XVI armchairs, crafted in Naples at the end of the 18th century. The lacquered and gilded wood frame features a refined interweaving of flowers and moss lines, creating a highly aesthetically balanced effect. The oval backrests and contoured armrests lend a sense of lightness to the composition, while the fluted truncated-cone legs recall the neoclassical purity typical of the period. The armchairs, if available in the river version, offer the option of customizing the upholstery to the owner's taste, while preserving the preciousness of the original structure. A magnificent example of refined 18th-century Napoleonic craftsmanship, perfect for original classics and prehistoric antique collections. Period: Late 18th century; Origin: Naples; Dimensions: Total height 95 cm; Seat
