Description

Elegant pair of Globe Wernicke London mahogany bookcases from the late 19th/early 20th century from England. This delightful pair of waterfall bookcases, so named because they have elements of varying depths, creating a stunning silhouette like a waterfall. They are among the rarest, as this different in depth allows for the placement of large books and objects in the lower sections. Furthermore, their shape is very pleasing. A beautiful model that can be placed together to form a large bookcase or separately. Bookcase with a lot of character with iron fittings on its sidesThe glasses slides inside the elementsIt can be used as a bookcase or a display casein perfect condition and very beautiful patinaThe bookcase match perfectly into an old or contemporary interioDelivery available
