Description

Small 18th century commode, known as a 3-drawer commode, 2 small and one large, in rosewood marquetry, stamped in 4 places JME (jurande des maîtres menuisiers ébénistes) and the initials FF (François Fleury) Parisian cabinetmaker of the mid-18th century, topped with its griotte marble in shades of red, the whole enhanced by its gilt bronzes, a work of very fine quality and interesting because of its small dimensions.
