Description

Oil on canvas depicting a village festival, Flemish school, 17th century. The painting we are presenting is a precious testament to daily life in the 17th century, a style so highly valued in Northern European painting of that period. A profusion of figures animates the composition of this work, which is rich in detail, contributing to its quality and diversity. Genre scenes like this were highly prized by major collectors and patrons in the 17th century. A beautiful molded frame completes the decoration. Private collection. In good condition (some wear to the painted surface). Oil on canvas, Flemish school, circa 1680. Dimensions: Frame: h. 85.5 cm x w. 108.5 cm. Canvas: h. 64 cm x w. 86 cm.
