Description

A coffee table serving as a display case, crafted from polychrome painted wood (ivory, antique gold, and sky blue) in the Louis XV style, dating from the 20th century. It combines the classic elegance of the Louis XV style with modern functionality. Its painted wooden structure, worked in light tones (blue and cream), lends it a visual lightness ideal for refined interiors. It rests on cabriole legs with a "hoof" finish. Its fluid curves extend up to the apron, creating an airy silhouette. Decorated with stylized flowers sculpted in gold. The apron is shaped. The tabletop consists of a wooden frame enclosing a protective glass panel. This allows for the display of collectibles, art books, or souvenirs while protecting them from dust.The tabletop lifts to reveal the display area, which is entirely lined
