Description

Louis XV style provincial wardrobe in walnut - 18th century. This provincial wardrobe in solid walnut, dating from the 18th century, originates from the South of France. It opens with two molded doors with shaped panels, surmounted by a straight, projecting cornice. The crossbar is decorated with carved motifs, and the fluted central upright features a stylized design. It rests on slightly cabriole legs and has a lower drawer with antique hardware. The interior is made of softwood, neatly restored. It has a beautiful patina and is a sound and decorative piece. Period: 18th century. Wood: solid walnut. Condition: very good overall condition. It opens with two molded doors with shaped panels, surmounted by a straight, projecting cornice.
