Description

Large Art Deco style serving platter by Pierre D'Avesn. Beautiful floral decoration of Tokyo chrysanthemums, very much in the spirit of René Lalique, who also worked with this motif. René D'Avesn was a great independent designer who was a student of René Lalique. This is an original and exceptional piece, remarkable for its quality and size, and can be used as a decorative art object or as a serving piece for a very elegant table. The beautiful interplay of matte and glossy gradations testifies to the artist's mastery. Excellent overall condition and the artist's signature on the reverse.
