580 EUR

Signature : Faïence de Nevers

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Description

pot in Nevers faïence, dating from the Louis XIV period around 1700, decorated in shades of blue with traditional landscape and village motifs. Two mascarons with women's faces frame two sides, making it easy to grip and move. Three original drainage holes in the bottom allow for water to escape, depending on usage. This Louis XIV pot is in very good condition. Two very fine, barely visible threads do not affect its use or decoration. Dimensions: Width at the mascarons: 26 cm; Height: 17 cm; Top diameter: 23 cm; Base diameter: 15 cm
