Description

Gilt-bronze jewelry casket, crafted by the German firm Erhart & Söhne around 1900.The casket features a rich Neo-Renaissance decoration, adorned with putti in relief and finely chiselled ornamental details.Rectangular in shape and well-balanced in its proportions, it opens to reveal an interior entirely lined with blue silk velvet with purplish highlights.The piece retains its original key, a particularly desirable and rarely preserved element.Condition: good overall condition, with slight wear to the surface gilding, consistent with age and use, enhancing the authentic character of the piece.
