

Large 19th-century Dagger

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Nacre

Length : 33,4

Description

A superb large dagger with a central, flaming edge, retaining all its sharpness. After an oblong ricassot, there is a metal guard with two balls, followed by a ring supporting the handle, which is composed of mother-of-pearl scales separated by a central ring engraved with two inverted crowns and ending in a pommel with a ring. This weapon is of remarkable quality and in impeccable condition. The leather scabbard shows wear, and there is a chape and a locket with a hanging loop. It is a French or German piece from the 19th century. Length 33.4 cm, Blade length 20.4 cm, Handle length 12.4 cm
