Great 18th Century French Painting, Romantic Pastoral Scene

Description

COD 01121 French school painting, second half of the 18th century. Oil on canvas artwork depicting a highly refined pastoral scene. In the foreground, a young shepherd rests seated next to a log, surrounded by his flock of sheep and goats. In the center, a young girl approaches him with a wicker basket filled with herbs, offering him her left hand. Behind her, a splendid mule carries tools. Pastoral scenes are a pictorial genre that spread throughout Europe and reached its peak during the Rococo period in France. Stylistically, given the subject matter, pictorial quality, and setting, this artwork can be traced back to the circle of Jean-Baptiste Huet (1745-1811). A highly talented artist specializing in pastoral scenes, he was influenced by Francois Boucher. (The painting is not currently accompanied by an
