Description

Art Deco ATO Blue Molded Glass Clock, Circa 1930. Elegant Art Deco table clock, made of pressed molded glass in an intense blue, typical of French production in the 1930s. The case has a slightly curved shape, with architectural lines very characteristic of the Art Deco style. The dial is integrated into the glass with raised numerals, offering a beautiful effect of depth and transparency. The center is adorned with a geometric frame, highlighting the exposed mechanism. Original stylized metal hands. On the back, the mechanical movement is housed in a circular metal case, with a winding key. Mechanical movement needs servicing. Signed ATO. Height: 17 cm Width: 23 cm
