Description

Refined pair of small mirrors, with carved swiss pine frames gilded with pure gold leaf. The frames are distinguished by their exquisite carvings of phytomorphic scrolls and geometric details, which lend great grace to the overall effect. The mirror is also original and in good condition. They also come with hooks for hanging. This pair of mirrors exudes great elegance and class, adding a touch of refinement and antique appeal to any space. Made in Bologna (Emilia-Romagna) during the Louis XV period, around the mid-18th century.
