Description

Le Verre Français vase mounted on a multi-layered, acid-etched glass pedestal. Decorated with foxgloves on a marbled background of white and pink opal, foliage and flowers transitioning from a deep, glossy brown to the reddish-orange of the bells. Signed on the base "Le Verre Français," circa 1925-1927. A similar model is reproduced in the book by Gérard Bertrand Schneider, master glassmaker: Charder, le verre français.
