Description

Vase with bats by Hans Stoltenberg Lerche, signed H.S Lerche, dated 1899 and located in Paris. A major work by the artist, this large vase fully expresses the mysterious and captivating world of the fin-de-siècle spirit. Three bats, sovereign animals of the night with occult symbolism, emerge from the belly of the vase into a starry sky, delicately suggested by the hammering of the metal. The birds seem to fly over the rooftops of Paris, punctuated by telegraph wires, a subtle evocation of a modern city still traversed by shadow and silence. Hans Stoltenberg-Lerche delivers an emblematic work here, in which a fascination with wild and untamed nature confronts the dizzying heights of nascent modernity. This vase stands out as one of the most accomplished expressions of Symbolist
