Description

Louis XV Marquetry Bonheur-du-Jour Desk - 19th Century. This elegant Louis XV style bonheur-du-jour desk, crafted from finely marquetry veneered wood, dates from the 19th century. It rests on four cabriole legs terminating in bronze sabots, characteristic of the Louis XV aesthetic. The curved drop-front, adorned with floral marquetry, opens to reveal a compartmentalized interior with drawers and a velvet-lined writing surface. The upper section features a central mirror, flanked by two small drawers, surmounted by openwork brass galleries, adding elegance and refinement to the piece. Delivery from EUR50 to EUR80. Style: Louis XV. Period: 19th century. Total height: 122 cm. Width: 66 cm. Depth: 47 cm.
