A beautiful antique bathroom vanity from the early 1900s, crafted from elm burl and mahogany, featuring lovely oval mirrors forming a triptych. Completely restored in our workshop, it is in excellent condition and ready to be installed. It comes with a new oval black porcelain sink, brass faucet, and drain. The vanity has two drawers in the lower section, which opens with two doors and solid brass hardware. It has a gray veined marble top, a marble backsplash to be glued to the wall, and a triptych mirror that can be attached to the vanity or mounted to the wall with two screws provided.
