900 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Antique screen composed of four panels upholstered in richly ornamented embroidered tapestry featuring arabesques, floral scrolls, and Renaissance-inspired motifs. The symmetrical compositions present stylized birds and finely crafted plant elements against a deep green background, creating an elegant and harmonious decorative ensemble. Each panel is mounted in a black lacquered wooden frame, highlighted with delicate gilt details, providing contrast and refinement. The upper section is adorned with a central decorative cartouche bearing the letter "M," reinforcing the screen's classical character. Brass hinges ensure smooth operation. High-quality decorative work, in the style of late 19th or early 20th-century European production. Dimensions: Each panel measures 47 cm wide by
