Description

Maurice Éliot (1862-1945) Portrait of a Child in a Blue Dress. Pastel on paper, signed lower right. Antique giltwood frame. Painter, pastelist, and drawing teacher, Maurice Éliot is among the recognized French artists of the late 19th century. A member of the Société des Pastellistes Français, he exhibited regularly at the Salon des Artistes Français and participated in the 1900 Universal Exhibition, where he received an award. This pastel depicts a young child dressed in a blue dress with a lace collar, rendered with great delicacy. The face, remarkably youthful, reveals a subtle mastery of flesh tones and
