Description

DescriptionThis vintage hand-woven kilim textile features a symmetrical geometric composition built around stacked diamond medallions and stepped zigzag motifs, characteristic of Anatolian flatweave traditions. Executed in wool, the surface displays a restrained yet warm palette of terracotta, muted orange, soft grey, ochre, and faded red tones, achieved through naturally aged dyes.ArtistArtist unknown; produced by an Anatolian workshop, likely 20th century.Artist DetailsThe kilim reflects traditional Anatolian weaving practices, typically carried out by rural artisans using hand-spun wool and flatweave techniques. Designs were often passed down through generations, with motifs carrying regional and symbolic meaning rather than individual authorship.MovementsAnatolian Folk
