Description

Émile Gallé, set of four Art Nouveau nesting tables, early 20th century
Elegant set of four Art Nouveau nesting tables by Émile Gallé, made in France in the early 20th century (circa 1900). This is a rare and refined group of tables that fully expresses the poetic and naturalistic language of the master from Nancy. The graduated tops are embellished with inlays in precious woods, depicting evocative seascapes of Brittany, with nautical themes evoking cliffs, tides, and coastal atmospheres. Each top is conceived as an autonomous work, with its own narrative and chromatic composition, but perfectly harmonized with the whole, creating a series of extraordinary artistic coherence. Each table bears the inlaid signature 'Gallé', a guarantee of authenticity and high craftsmanship, making it
