Description

A polychrome glazed ceramic vase attributed to Hilton McConnico, a designer and artist renowned for his colorful and narrative style, at the crossroads of design, decorative arts, and scenography. The body features a decoration of stylized chili peppers suspended from a wavy blue band, standing out against a deep red background. The upper and lower sections are embellished with yellow and blue dotted patterns, creating a rhythmic and joyful graphic interplay. The overall effect evokes a festive, Mediterranean inspiration, characteristic of the artist's expressive aesthetic. The glossy glazes and bold color palette highlight the quality of the ceramic work. The vase's generous and balanced form makes it a striking decorative piece, ideal for a contemporary interior or a collection of
