Cut Crystal and Sterling Silver Box - Maison Auger, Paris, Minerva 1st Standard Hallmark. This elegant rectangular box in cut crystal, accompanied by its sterling silver lid, was made by Maison Auger, a Parisian silversmith renowned for the quality and refinement of its creations in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. The lid, with its finely molded classical decoration, highlighted by a frieze of pearls and stylized decorative elements, is made of sterling silver hallmarked with the Minerva 1st standard hallmark (950/1000). It is adorned in its center with a delicately executed engraved monogram. The lid alone weighs 150 grams, attesting to meticulous craftsmanship and high-quality silversmithing. The cut crystal base, with its beautiful, regular facets, offers an elegant play of
