Description

Prestigious solid silver salad service by Puiforcat de St. Régence, in the so-called ELYSEE pattern. This model, the epitome of elegance and refinement, has been called ELYSEE since it graced the formal tables of the Presidents of the French Republic at the Élysée Palace since the late 1940s, representing the pinnacle of French tableware. The salad service is complete with its two pieces, each bearing a numbered cartouche on the spatulas. Each piece is hallmarked with the French Minerva 1st Standard (.925) mark and the hallmark of the master silversmith Emile Puiforcat. This prestigious Puiforcat ELYSEE pattern salad service is in excellent condition, complete, and presented in its original double-compartment pouch and box, with minor scratches consistent with age and use.
