Description

Antique African Carved Wooden Mask - Tribal ArtAn antique African mask carved from dense wood with a beautiful dark patina, featuring a stylized face with clean, powerful lines. The eyes are highlighted by horizontal light inlays, creating a striking contrast with the dark wood surface. The long, straight nose, discreet mouth, and overall symmetry give the mask a strong sculptural presence.An antique piece, likely from West Africa, characteristic of ritual or ceremonial statuary. It has a beautiful patina from use, with visible and age-appropriate signs of wear and tear, and no apparent restoration.A collector's item, both decorative and ethnographic, ideal for enthusiasts of African art or collectors of tribal artDimensions: (to be completed) Material: Carved wood Period: 20th
