Two original armchairs from the 1960s, completely restored with new upholstery and genuine leather. Elegant and comfortable, their design is a true testament to their era! The backrest reclines with a simple push, and a leg rest opens simultaneously under the seat. These Italian-made armchairs are original models from the 1960s with an iron and wood frame. The old, worn upholstery has been replaced with new upholstery. They are covered in high-quality genuine calfskin.
