Description

Large Antique Framed Print - The Ten Virgins - 112 x 78 cm. Beautiful antique print entitled The Ten Virgins, after a work by Eugène Burnand, published by Berger-Levrault & Cie (1908). This scene, rich in symbolism and religious significance, depicts the wise and foolish virgins in a delicate and expressive composition. The work is presented in a solid wood frame with an antique patina, simple yet elegant, perfectly showcasing the engraving. A decorative piece of character, ideal for a classic interior, a library, a cabinet of curiosities, or refined wall art.

Dimensions with frame: Height: 78 cm Width: 112 cm. Good overall condition considering its age: slight signs of wear visible on the paper and frame (see photos), without detracting from the charm or legibility of the work.
