Description

Beautiful Mahogany Cabaret Table Attributed to the Mailfert Workshops. It can be used as a coffee table, games table, etc. A very beautiful Louis XV style cabaret table in light and blackened mahogany. A very fine piece from around 1900, attributed to the Mailfert Amos workshops. Constructed like a true period cabaret table, it is entirely pegged. The cabaret top is covered in beautiful burgundy leather tooled in gold. The crossbars are very attractively shaped and molded. It rests on four hocked legs ending in hoof-shaped feet. A very beautiful cabaret table in mahogany and blackened mahogany on the stringing and moldings, offering a striking contrast. A remarkable piece from around 1900 attributed to the Mailfert Amos workshops. Dimensions: 81 cm long x 60 cm wide x 74 cm
