Description

Early 20th-century Indian School. "Rama"
Festival Scene. Gouache on canvas. 71 x 50 cm.
Framed with a gilded wooden frame, under glass.
No tears or damage. Very bright and fresh colors.
Highly decorative. Rama Navami is a popular Hindu festival celebrated in March or April (the 13th of Chaitra), which celebrates the birth of Rama, prince of Ayodhya and seventh incarnation of Vishnu. The traditional ceremony includes the giving of gifts and a large feast.
