Magnificent silver-plated candy dish or biscuit tin by the German brand WMF. In a remarkable Art Nouveau style, it features flower-shaped handles and a spout adorned with a flower on the lid. The glass, partially green, is decorated with two engraved flowers. This finish is likely a reference to Moser. The metal base is marked: WFM IO as. The spout on the lid is marked IOWMF: this stands for Württembergische Metalwaren Fabrik (Württemberg Metalworks Factory). I/O indicates 1 gram of silver per cm². as stands for Silver Veil Finish, a silver-plating technique. In very good condition. The glass has a small chip; see the detailed photo.
