Description

A painting of popular culture, but with an unusual and interesting iconography linked to the Madonna of the Rosary. In this case, the figures are framed by a garland of flowers, which alternate with medallions depicting scenes from the life of Mary and Christ, namely the 15 mysteries of the rosary: 5 joyful, 5 sorrowful, and 5 glorious. The whole is surmounted by angels and serpents. Paintings of this kind aptly capture the popular and devotional culture of the peripheral towns along the Apennine ridge, and it was likely executed by a painter active during the second half of the 17th century between Umbria and the Marche. The painting measures 81 cm x 97 cm high. It is in good condition and is being offered at a bargain price.
