Description

Elegant cabinet painted in lean tempera in shades of green, yellow, and brown. The cabinet features period-typical bracketed feet, a finely molded top, and a concave shape. This piece of furniture is unique: it was probably originally integrated into a wainscoting, serving as a semi-hidden cabinet. On the front, the painted decorations depict geometric diamond motifs, further enhancing its refinement. The cabinet features a gilded bronze lock and key, which open the door to reveal four ergonomic shelves ideal for storing objects. This is a piece of furniture of great taste and refinement, capable of adding a touch of
