Description

A set of three nesting rolling tables in gilt metal with glass tops. Each table is adorned with a finely crafted openwork gallery, elegantly highlighting the tabletops. The structure rests on fluted cylindrical supports, punctuated with decorative rings, and terminates in original casters, ensuring mobility and functionality. A beautiful and harmonious set with a refined aesthetic, evoking the neoclassical taste and decorative styles of the first half of the 20th century. The glass tops are well preserved, and the set is in very good overall condition, with a consistent and elegant patina. Ideal as side tables, end tables, or serving tables, in both classic and contemporary interiors. French work, circa 1950-1960.
