Description

A sculpted tombstone in two registers, in the Neo-Gothic style. Between two pilasters, Christ the King is flanked by two figures, one male and one female (likely the deceased and his wife). Below, the Pietà is surrounded by other figures. On the front of the stone is the inscription: "Here lies Charles François Neufville, who died on June 16, 1894, aged 70. Dear wife, come to me." This stone has been outdoors. Its condition is visible in the photos. Contact me for delivery details. Dimensions: 129 x 61 x 14 cm
