Description

A substantial sculptural glazed stoneware piece, 65 cm high and 45 cm in diameter, depicting a highly detailed, naturalistic heron with its original integrated flower holder. Belgian production, early 20th century, attributed to the Nimy factory, renowned for its artistic naturalistic stoneware and large-format pieces with a strong decorative presence. The quality of the modeling, the richness of the green and brown glazes, and the exceptional size of the piece reflect the high standards of Nimy during this period.
