Description

French School, 18th century, by Louis G. Moreau (1740-1806), the first gouache depicting a village festival with figures dancing amidst greenery, and the second gouache showing figures in a landscape enlivened by windmills. The pair is highly decorative, with its remarkably fresh colors, and beautifully framed with two-tone washes on more recent laid paper; it features antique gilt moldings. Dimensions of each frame: 26 x 32 cm.
