Description

Painting titled "Pierrot Lunaire No. 4," subtitled in German: "Eine blasse wäscherin" (A blasé washerwoman), dated 1984. Mixed media, painting on paper and on an old handwritten sheet glued onto plywood. France. Francis Berthault was born in 1953 in Paris. He graduated from the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris, where he studied under Debré and Bertholle. He also holds a Master's degree in Fine Arts from the Sorbonne. He then embarked on a significant national and international career. The work presented here corresponds to a period of work on collage and the poetic association of pieces of paper in 1980's years. He later returned to working on canvas. His work is figurative, colorful, and poetic, continually exploring new forms. Dimensions without frame: 50cm x 30cm
