Description

A large, hand-painted, two-door country wardrobe in the Baroque style, featuring a curved pediment and an apple-shaped cartouche bearing the monogram "EL" and the date 1860. The lower section has two drawers, and the corners of the wardrobe are chamfered. The original decoration, painted in dark blue, consists of four panels on the doors with reddish floral motifs, complemented by additional floral details on the pilasters and drawers. The frame is made of spruce wood and fitted with iron band hinges. The interior is equipped with rows of clothes hooks, making this piece suitable for use as a wardrobe.
