Description

A charming small writing table in the Louis XV style, dating from the Napoleon III period or late 19th century. Inlaid with rosewood and palisander stringing, it features a drawer in the apron, mounted on oak with dovetail joints. The leather top is beautifully patinated and decorated with tooled motifs. Bronze mounts adorn the molding, corner mounts, drawer pull, and feet. In very good condition with minor restorations consistent with age. Delivery is possible; please contact us.
