

Glass Goblet Bearing A Family Name - Normandy, Tanville, Early 19th Century

450 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 7,5 cm

Height : 9,7 cm

Description

A cylindrical, lightly tinted glass goblet bearing the family name, decorated with an engraved design of two birds on a leafy mound and marked within a radiating medallion "Renée Hallier." The rim is engraved with a stylized garland. The neck is outlined with a blue glass band. Normandy, Tanville, early 19th century. Very good condition, minor imperfections in the applied blue band, some minor imperfections beneath the engraved medallion. Height: 9.7 cm - Diameter: 7.5 cm

Dealer

Antiquités JD

Verrerie ancienne, Curiosités, Objets de vitrine & Art populaire

Mobile : +33 6 11 61 19 79

avenue de la République

Paris 75011