Description

A large and elegant bronze statue depicting Mercier's David slaying Goliath, this important piece features a green patina from the period. A famous subject, it was first produced under Napoleon III by Antonin Mercier. This unsigned reproduction is nonetheless decorative, a smaller version of the one held at the Musée d'Orsay in Paris. The green patina accentuates its park-like appearance, suggesting the oxidation of bronze outdoors, giving it undeniable decorative appeal. A significant and ornamental piece worthy of a refined and high-quality decor... This piece is in good original condition and of a good size (68cm high).
