Description

Large painting by Walter Witting (1864-1940), 19th century, depicting a farmyard, with a brass exhibition plaque on its frame and signature in the lower right corner. A highly realistic painting with vibrant colors. Witting was a painter renowned for his use of shadows and depth, evident in the left-hand side of the painting. The frame is of exceptional quality, with intricately carved details that further enhance the painting's depth.
