Description

Here is a Virgin Mary, probably carved from boxwood. Please note that the Christ Child is missing. Regarding its condition, there are some small stains in places. Lucienne Heuvelmans (1881-1944) was a French sculptor, painter, and illustrator. In 1911, she was the first woman to win the Grand Prix de Rome. In the early 1930s, she settled in Saint-Cast, Brittany. She specialized in ancient mythology and religious art. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the piece. For condition details, please examine the photos carefully. Feel free to zoom in. The photos are an integral part of the description. Dimensions: Height: 33 cm Width: 10.2 cm Depth: 7 cm M3527
