Description

Sculpture by Virginia Romania Three-dimensional sculpture with fluid, looping forms that seem to twist and interweave. The work appears to be constructed from thin, sheet-like richly textured material, organic patterns in earthy tones with speckled white and black dots that give a tactile feel. The shape creates a dynamic sense of tension and balance. The interplay between open space and solid surface gives it a spatial complexity that changes with the viewer's angle. 80 cm wide, 50 cm deep and 45 cm high. Total weight of 7,4 kg. Belgian contemporary art.
